MARILLA TOWNSHIP BOARD MEETING
JUNE 10, 2010

Meeting was called to order by Supervisor Holly Waldo at 7:00 p.m. Officers present were Holly Buda, Supervisor, Margaret Rybicki, Clerk, Patricia Ellis, Treasurer and Karen Bingman, Trustee, Patricia Taylor Trustee.

Guests present were Julie Beardsley Assessor, Rebekah Johnson Deputy Clerk, Russ Taylor, Phyllis Cholett, Marsha Remick, and Neil Crawford.

The Pledge of Allegiance was said

By consensus bills for February & March and Minutes for February were accepted.

PUBLIC COMMENT: None

CLERK: Margaret reminded anyone living in the KND School district that the school elections would be held May 4th. If they need a absentee ballot they need to request it from her and to vote in person they would vote at the Maple Grove Township Hall.

TREASURER: Tax collection is finished and turned into the County. Only Revenue for February was the interest from the bank.

TRUSTEE'S:

PAT TAYLOR: Trow Tree Farm is out of business (they cut the township tree's in 2004) but if were thinking of cutting trees again one of their workers has started a tree business. Holly stated that we would probley have 3 or 4 bids is we decided to cut tree's but prices are down right now so we will wait and see how the market goes.

KAREN: Nothing

ZONING ADM: Attending another meeting but has had no request for permits.

ASSESSOR: Had 33 appeals this year. Made three changes. State will be taking over training of Assessors. Changes will be made in requirements for level of certification. Julie stated she feels a study should be made in the N.E. part of the county. Need to look into at modular and mobile home values. Need a guide on how to adjust it.

SUPERVISOR: Holly reminded everyone that Clean Up Day is June 26th from 8 to Noon. Must be a Marilla Township property owner. Hazardous Waste can be taken to the Road Commission building on August 21st from 9 to Noon. Notices will be posted at the Hall and flyers will be in the Hall and some business's (Bank ect) in Copemish. There will be significant changes in Revenue Sharing in the next year. Historical Society sent out a news letter. This is their 30th anniversary. Marsha Remick is the new Director for the Historical Society.

There being no other business meeting was closed at 7:30 p.m.
